A NATIONAL VICTORY.

The Albanys Outfielded and Outbatted. The National and Albany clubs finished their ars ies of agmes here last Saturday, each club win ing two. In the last game played the home team did better fielding, with the exception of Sayder, than in any of the others. The honors belonged to

Now that the games between those clubs are over, a word about the umpiring cannot effect them. Mr. Sullivan was selected because he was believed to be imparital, but his rulings in the first three games, including the one won by the Nationals, were so manifestly biased toward the Albany club that many of the speciators perceived and openly spoke of it. In calling balls and strikes he was very unfair, and at one time he would have been changed had not the Nationals accepted him for the entire four games. Every close decision went to the visitors, which was not the ensw with the Nationals when on the road playing, but on the contrary, the home club received the decision when doubtful.

Lass Saturdny Pike was out at first and Lynch plainly not out at the same base, still Mr. Seilman decided the other way in both instances. It is pretty and to say that this gentleman will not umpire any more games here this season. The Nationals selected a man from another city in order to get rid of that part partisan cry started last year, but they cannot afford to be umpired ont of games. They should dose Albany with their own needleine. When the Nationals vial them they are needed with three names from which to select the amount afford to be umpired ont of games. They should dose Albany with their own needleine. When the Nationals vial them they are needed by the national vial the season. The following is the score of the Saturday game.

He did not attain that success expected of him as a bail player, and he gives way to a more experienced one. He was an annature when he came here, and has the material within him for a flue player, and it will require very lew seasons to develop it. Wherever he may go he will carry with him the best wishes of the National club for his success.

AMUSEMENTS.

Ford's Opera-House-Hearts of Oak. Ford's Opera-House—Hearts of Oak.

Herue's great play, "Hearts of Oak," will be produced at the Opera-House to night on the occasion of the benefit tendered to Manager H. Clay Ford. The play will be produced by the same powerful company that made the piece such an artistic success at the Fifth-avenue theatre. New York, James A. Herrie and Catharine Corcoran are at the head of the company. The drama is intensely interesting. One of the scenes represents a shipwreck, and in this scene to-night Captain Paul Boyton will appear in his life-saving dress. Manager Ford has been so long identified with the theatrical interests of this city that he needs no introduction to the public. He richly deserves the compilment of a crowded house.

National Theatre—Humpty Dumpty. Abboy's Humpty Dumpty and Spanish Students Combination form the attraction at the National this week. The New York Daily News, speaking of the performance, says: "It is a scene of unending fun and frolic which engages the sympathies of the attendance without intermission, and is received with unlingging enjoyment with every repetition." Blind Tom.

"Blind Tom," the wonderful negro boy planist, will begin a week's engagement at Odd-Fellows' hall to night.

Summer Theatre Comique. The summer season at the Comique will be opened to-night, and the event will be appropriately signalized by the production of one of the best variety entertainments of the year. The Paris Folly company, a fine combination, have been engaged. Many old favorites will also appear. The Folly company includes forty young ladies, who have been styled "The beauties of the American stage." A splendid programme has been arranged.

stage." A splendid programme has been arranged.

The Arlington Theatre.

Manager Wood, of the Arlington theatre, has struggled with great energy and enterprise against the influence of the failures of former managers until he has brought the reputation of the theatre up to an excellent standard. The entertainments which he is presenting to his patrons have never been excelled. During the present week the attraction will be Mile Saroni's female ministrels and novelty company. Manager Wood deserves auccess for his enterprise, and he will undoubtedly be well rewarded, for the public is never long in discovering whether the entertainments given at a theatre are meritorious or not.

CITY ITEMS. Deserve a Monument.

The "Standard," Syracuse, N. Y., is the journal from which the following extract is cut: "That the repriators of Warner's Safe Remedies are entitled a monument is unmistakably true. It is an indi-surable fact that these parties must be and are ooked upon as Good Samaritans."
